1. Press Headlines

The week's major news story was Prince Khalid's designation as Crown Prince. The King's arrival in Jidda and the visit of the Ruler of Malaysia also received prominent press attention. Elsewhere, the bombing of the American Embassy in Saigon attracted headlines in some papers which also carried several wirephotos of the damage and of wounded U.S. personnel. Al-Bilad highlighted a report that Communist China had refused the USSR permission to ship aid overland to North Vietnam. Al-Ukaz carried on its front page a press statement from the U.S. Mission in Geneva regarding the forthcoming NEA Chiefs of Mission Conference there. (UNCLASSIFIED)
